- 16.1.1 the Supplier commits a breach of any term of the Contract which breach is irremediable or (if such breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within a period of 2 days after the date of the breach;
- 16.1.2 there is a change of control of the Supplier (within the meaning given in section 1124 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010);

- 16.1.3 the Supplier takes any step or action in connection with its entering administration, provisional liquidation or any composition or arrangement with its creditors (other than in relation to a solvent restructuring), being wound up (whether voluntarily or by order of the court, unless for the purpose of a solvent restructuring), having a receiver appointed to any of its assets or ceasing to carry on business or, if the step or action is taken in another jurisdiction, in connection with any analogous procedure in the relevant jurisdiction;
- 16.1.4 the Supplier's financial position deteriorates to such an extent that in the Company's opinion the Supplier's capability to adequately fulfil its obligations under the Contract has been placed in jeopardy; or
- 16.1.5 the Supplier suspends, or threatens to suspend, or ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or a substantial part of its business.
- 16.2 Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, the Company may terminate the Contract:
- 16.2.1 with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier if any applicable Main Contract is terminated; or
- 16.2.2 for convenience by giving the Supplier 7 days' written notice.
- 16.3 The Company shall be entitled to suspend delivery of the Goods or performance of the Services immediately upon notice to the Supplier:
- 16.3.1 for an indefinite period if the Supplier becomes subject to any of the events set out in clause 16.1; or
- 16.3.2 for any period of time during which any applicable Main Contract is suspended; or
- 16.3.3 for any period of time during which an event outside of the Company's control affects its normal business operations; or
- 16.3.4 for a period of up to 90 days for any reason provided that at the end of such period the Supplier shall be entitled to terminate the Contract upon 14 days' notice in writing to the Company.
- 17. CONSEQUENCES OF TERMINATION
- 17.1 On termination of the Contract, the Supplier shall immediately deliver to the Company all Goods and Deliverables whether or not then complete which the Company has paid for, and return all Company Materials. If the Supplier fails to do so, then the Company may enter the Supplier's premises and take possession of them. For this purpose, the Supplier shall ensure that any paid for Goods/Deliverables, together with any Company Materials which are on the Supplier's premises, are clearly marked as being the property of the Company and held separately to any other items which it holds/stores for customer at its premises. Until they have been returned or delivered, the Supplier shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping and will not use them for any purpose not connected with the Contract.
- 17.2 On termination of the Contract the Supplier shall immediately refund the Company any sums paid for Goods not fully and properly delivered and for Services not fully and properly performed.
- 17.3 Termination of the Contract shall not affect the parties' rights and remedies that have accrued as at termination, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination.
- 17.4 Any provision of the Contract that expressly or by implication is intended to come into or continue in force on or after termination of the Contract shall remain in full force and effect.
- 18. FORCE MAJEURE
- The Company shall not be in breach of the Contract nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under the Contract if such delay or failure result from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control. In such circumstances the time for performance shall be extended by a period equivalent to the period during which performance of the obligation has been delayed or failed to be performed.
- 19. GENERAL
- 19.1 Assignment and other dealings. The Company may at any time assign, mortgage, charge, subcontract, delegate, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights and obligations under the Contract. The Supplier shall not assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, delegate, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with any of its rights and obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Company.
- 19.2 Subcontracting. Except for the subcontractors identified in the Order, the Supplier may not subcontract any or all of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Company. If the Company consents to any subcontracting by the Supplier, the Supplier shall remain responsible for all the acts and omissions of its subcontractors as if they were its own.
- 19.3 Notices. Any notice given to a party under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing and shall be (a) delivered by hand or by pre-paid first-class post or other next working day delivery service or airmail at its registered office; or (b) sent by email to the address notified for such purposes (with a copy to follow by first-class post). Any notice shall be deemed to have been received:
- 19.3.1 if delivered by hand, on signature of a delivery receipt or at the time the notice is left at the proper address;
- 19.3.2 if sent by pre-paid first-class post or other next working day delivery service, at 9.00 am on the second Business Day after posting or at the time recorded by the delivery service;
- 19.3.3 if sent by airmail, at 9.00 am on the fifth Business Day after posting or at the time recorded by the delivery service; and
- 19.3.4 if sent by email, at the time of transmission, or, if this time falls outside business hours in the place of receipt, when business hours resume. In this clause 19.3.4, business hours means 9.00am to 5.00pm Monday to Friday on a day that is not a public holiday in the place of receipt.
- 19.3.5 This clause does not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action or, where applicable, any arbitration or other method of dispute resolution.
- 19.4 Severance. If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed deleted, but that shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract. If any provision of the Contract is deemed deleted under this clause 19.4 the parties shall negotiate in good faith to agree a replacement provision that, to the greatest extent possible, achieves the intended commercial result of the original provision.
- 19.5 Waiver. A waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract or by law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent right or remedy. A failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
- 19.6 No partnership or agency. Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the parties, constitute either party the agent of the other, or authorise either party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other party. Each party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.
- 19.7 Entire agreement. The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter.
- 19.8 Third party rights. Unless it expressly states otherwise, the Contract does not give rise to any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of the Contract
- 19.9 Variation. Except as set out in these Conditions, no variation of the Contract, including the introduction of any additional terms and conditions, shall be effective unless it is agreed in writing and signed by the parties or their authorised representatives.
- 19.10 Governing law. The Contract, and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.
- 19.11 Jurisdiction. Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter or formation.
